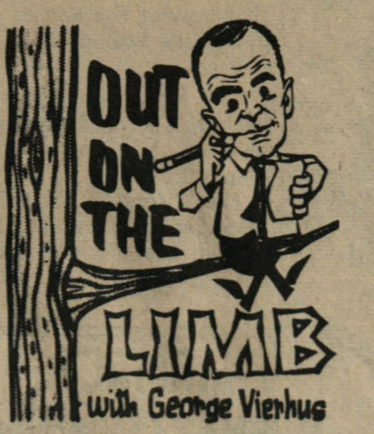
Vol. 80 No. 47 Monday, November 20, 1972 Thanksgiving Issue 10¢

378-9136 35 Dillon Avenue, Campbell, California



THANKSGIVING IS THE time of year when all of us are admonished from the pulpit or editorially or other ways, to count our blessings and to recall all the things for which we should be thankful.

If a person sincerely works at listing one's blessings, etc., such lists can be quite impressive. And revealing.

Even to those who feel that things have been really against them.

Those of us who try to give it a whirl (making such lists, that is), start out generally with the status and/or degree of health and wealth in which we find ourselves and our loved ones at the moment.

Obviously those are important aspects and quite definitely are vital. Unfortunately, those are the major concerns of us all and we don't just think about them at Thanksgiving time.

But there are a number of other generalized areas which deserve some reflection on our part at Thanksgiving time.

Take as a f'instance, the right of all of us to express ourselves on various subjects, from politics down or up, without fear of reprisal.

One might call it the right to disagree or agree.

We are thankful that we can disagree with opinions of people in authority or agree with them, as the case may be.

Y'know there are places where that can't happen.

Or did you know?

ANYWAY THAT ONLY illustrates the point that many of our blessings that we take for granted really are highly important to us all.

We can think of a number of others and so can you.

And this is the time to do it, if you have a mind to do so.

And a Happy Thanksgiving to you, too.

BECAUSE OF THE STEPped-up operation of The Press this week, (we mean publishing on Monday instead of on Wednesday) things have been more hectic than usual at the joint or, to put it another way, more confused than ever.

We suppose we should be used to it by now, after all we have been exposed to it for quite a spell.

But, as much as one realizes that starting with Thanksgiving, the pace will quicken until the new year begins, we seem never to be ready for the logistics problems that always arise.

Take a minor situation such as getting this column on the hook ahead of time.

This week at The Press, we tried to change Saturday to our regular Tuesday and Friday into Monday.

It took some doing, we assure you. And we are not sure how well we succeeded.

However, if you are reading this column on Monday, that means we made the adjustment to some degree.

But we fouled up on getting this column ahead of its regular schedule.

It is being churned out on the Friday as per the calendar (as usual) instead of the converted Friday (which would have been Wednesday) if we had been on the ball.

And what makes it even worse, as you may recall, last Friday (calendar) was a gorgeous day.

The sky was cloudless and blue. The sun shone brilliantly.

The rains had let up for almost the first time after about two weeks of off and on downpours.

And as we churned away at our typewriter, we recalled that we had been thwarted on Wednesday on the golf course. Our foursome only had managed to get in 11 holes before being forced to seek cover.

It seemed a little unfair.

But we know, this is Thanksgiving.

So we guess we should be

GRADING JOB

City lets contract for park

A Campbell firm, Norman B. Houge, Inc., of 780 Union Ave., has been awarded the contract by the City Council for the grading of Rincon Park with a low bid of $27,200.

The successful bidder was $9,840 below the bid of Leo F. Piazza Paving Co., ($37,700), the second lowest bid in the field of six that were submitted. The high bid was $75,700.

The other bidders were: Eilert & Smith, $42,777; A. J. Raisch Paving Co., $46,800; Aadco Construction Co., $74,200 and McCarthy & Spiesman, $75,700.

The grading of the park is the first step in the long-awaited improvement program for the development of the 21-acre parcel adjacent to Campbell Elementary School.

Before awarding the contract, the councilmen expressed concern over the variance among the bidders ($48,500 between the low and high) as to whether the

NEW RECORD NEARS

Building permit total jumps by $3 million during October

A tremendous $3.4 million spurt in building permits for "multiples" during October brought the permit total for the year to date to $14,130,959, which is within hailing distance of the record-breaking total of last year, according to Wally Byron, building official.

For the 12-month period last year, $18,439,839.20 in permits were issued by the building department. With two months yet to go this year, there is a good chance that the 1972 12-month total will top last year's figures.

In reaching the $3 million total for multiples during October, only two permits were issued.

One went to Variant Investment Co. at 350 Budd Ave. for $2.8 million and the other to I.D. Wiens at 230 Rose Court for $187,500. Since the start of the year there have been eight permits issued for multiples for $5,170,349.

October was also a good month for single family dwellings with 13 permits issued to Dura Style Homes for $346,000.

During the entire 12-month period in 1971, there were only nine single family dwelling permits for $174,388. For the first 10 months this year there have been 116 such permits for $2,639,920.

There was an industrial building permit in October to Halvorsen & Jones at 88 Dillon Ave. for $25,506 and there have been five issued during the year so far for $67,659. (There were 17 during 1971 for $993,414.)

Although there were no permits issued in October for commercial buildings, there have been 17 issued since January for $5,374,462, com-

NOVEMBER 22 AT CAMPBELL HIGH

Local churches join in Thanksgiving services

Campbell High School auditorium will be the setting on Wednesday, November 23, at 7:30 p.m. for a community celebration of Thanksgiving in which representatives of both Catholic and Protestant churches will participate.

The ecumenical Thanksgiving services, sponsored by the Campbell Ministerial Fellowship of which Father Leonard W. Bose, pastor of St. Lucy's Catholic Church is president, is the first to be held in the community.

Speaker will be Dr. Tom Grisson, district superintendent of the United Methodist Church. His subject will be "Taking Things for Granted."

Dr. Grisson has been an active Methodist leader for many years. He was minister of the Taylor United Methodist Church, Oakland, for six years.

Bob Campbell, music director of the First United Methodist Church of Campbell, will direct a massed choir including singers from his choir as well as choirs from the Congregational Church of Campbell, Roselawn United Methodist Church, St. Lucy's Catholic Church and Immanuel United Presbyterian Church.

Lay leaders will also participate in the service. City Manager Bob Stephens will be head usher and will supervise the ushering team made up of Campbell youth representing the several churches.

According to the Rev. Anthony Wayne Myers, pastor of the Campbell Congregational Church and chairman of the committee for the service, in addition to sharing in community songs of Thanksgiving and appropriate prayers, each person attending the service will receive five grains of corn, symbolic of the first Thanksgiving in New England.

Rations of the Pilgrims had sunk that low and the symbolic gesture of the grains of corn that the people can take home will be a Thanksgiving Day reminder at the family table on Thursday.

In addition to Rev. Myers, others serving on the committee, include Father Bose; Rev. Foster Shannon, Immanuel Presbyterian; Rev. Roland Wiederanders, Zion Lutheran; Rev. Wm. H. (Ben) Gould, First United Methodist Church, Campbell. Other local clergy will also be included in the celebration

The Rev. Myers emphasized that the community service was planned as an event for people of all faiths to gather to express thanks to God and it is hoped that it will become a yearly event.

The clergy stress that all persons are welcome regardless of race or creed.

REV. R. B. WIEDERANDERS
—Zion Lutheran Church

Thanksgiving 1972

By R. B. WIEDERANDERS
Pastor, Zion Lutheran Church

"Bless the Lord, O my soul;
  and all that is within me, bless his holy name!
Bless the Lord, O my soul,
  and forget not all his benefits,
who forgives all your iniquity,
  who heals all your diseases,
who redeems your life from the Pit,
  who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy,
who satisfies you with good as long as you live
  so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's."
- Psalm 103:1-5.

Robert Louis Stevenson once wrote, "The world is so full of a number of things, I'm sure we should all be as happy as kings!" The truth of the matter, though, is that we are not always as happy as kings, even though the world is so full of a number of things. Moreover, thankfulness is not something one just turns on or off at will. It isn't as though President Nixon issues a Thanksgiving Day proclamation, and we then pull the thankfulness lever, and -- presto chango --- we're thankful!

Sometimes people feel absolutely miserable in the presence of beauty or the happiness of others, because at the timethey don't find themselves able to enjoy these things. So thankfulness is something that comes out of an authentic experience of goodness; it's when one feels one's life put together and in tune. The psalmist says it well when he says, "All that is within me -- bless his holy name!"

This man was happy because things that make people unhappy -- and undoubtedly had made him unhappy at times -- had been overcome. In this he saw the blessing of God. There was iniquity and a guilty conscience -- but it was forgiven. There were diseases -- but they were healed. There was the threat of life going under -- but it didn't.

It reminds us somewhat of the colonists celebrating their first Thanksgiving Day in America. They'd been through the hardship, hunger and disease of the first winter in a strange and forbidding new land. But then came springtime, crops and harvest. They found themselves thankful and wanted to say so in word and act. The enemies of their happiness had been overcome!

Sometimes life seems so very out of tune. The sense of my wrong stands against me. Maybe I've done something for which I hate myself. At that point I feel lonely and cut off. But there is a healing for this. It is called forgiveness. When we know forgiveness we are no longer lonely and cut off; we join the human race again, we can participate with joy. The psalmist knew about this and blessed the Lord, "who forgives all your iniquity." I think of the heart of the Christian faith I profess. What made Christ such "good news" to people was that they found forgiveness, inner healing, in him. Then they could be happy and thankful.

One of the things that has impressed me over the years is the strong drive toward health that you see working in human life. We cut a finger -- the wound heals over. A virus attacks -- antibodies go to work against it. Even in mental illness there are forces that struggle to bring things into balance again. The power of healing is what the medical profession works with all the time. In times of sickness we pray for it. And when we have experienced the healing and are whole again, we are grateful: "Bless the Lord, who heals all your diseases..."

It is when we feel our life affirmed, when we feel inwardly whole, when we really sense the friendliness of life and the goodness of God who gave it, that we can say with exuberance that the world is so full of a number of things I'm sure we should all be as happy as kings. Full of good things it is indeed! Friendship and love; home and family; beauty, music and laughter; a great variety of things that engage our interest and challenge our skill; material things from a horn of plenty and the opportunity to share them with people less fortunate. We live in the midst of things like that.

But the good that enables us to receive these things with joy is the steadfast love of God. The love at the heart of things! It transforms thanksgiving from dutiful routine to genuine experience.

"Bless the Lord, O my soul!"

thankful that we were able to slosh around for even 11 holes.

On the other hand, it is difficult to be objective in this instance.

Especially after checking the score that we shot for those 11 holes.

We guess we should be thankful that we didn't play 18 holes.

THAT PELTING RAIN made things a little difficult for the carrier boys of The Press.

The boys are supposed to always "porch" the papers. During the downpour most of them consequently tried to do a better job than usual. In some cases, porches are non-existent.

In dry weather, "porching," in those cases presents really no problem.

They just try to come close to the front door.

Surprisingly there were few complaints from the subscribers about wet papers. That speaks well for the little guys.

We learned from Carol Castell, the circulation manager, that many of the little guys at "porchless" houses, handed the papers personally to the householder after first ringing the door bell.

We learned, too, that mothers, dads, big brothers and sisters, and even grandmothers donned raingear and helped the carriers in the family do their Press routes.

For example, Ken Podgorsek, one of the top Press carriers, had high level assistance from his mother in getting his papers to his customers.

Arline Podgorsek worked one side of the street and Ken the other.

As she was trit-trotting away from one house after "porching" the paper, a guy at the front door called out to her.

"How come," he wanted to know in a kidding manner, "that the mayor's wife is out delivering The Campbell Press?"

"It's all in the day's work," Arline shrugged and went on about her business.

Rather, Kenny's business.

THOSE OF US WHO LIVE in the Campbell area, have something else to be thankful for, by the way.

And the heavy rains have emphasized that particular blessing.

We refer to the storm drainage system that is in effect throughout the city. It has handled the run-offs adequately.

And the channels of the creek that have been improved by the flood control people certainly helped the situation as did the various reservoirs.

But let us clue you in, it wasn't always thataway.

It hasn't been so many years ago when many streets ran curb-to-curb after rains that weren't as bad as the ones we have had recently.

And we recall the creeks going over the banks with city employees, concerned residents, and volunteers attempting to keep debris from cracking culverts while sand-bagging like crazy.

So we have much to be thankful for on that score.

Or to make it even more emphatic, just reflect for a moment the tragic situation in the Big Sur country caused by the heavy rains and subsequent mud-slides.

We do have much to be thankful for.

NOT BEING AN OVERLY-enthusiastic gardener, we suppose we could also be thankful that the wet weather has kept us from working in our yard.

But wow!

Look what's going to happen when we can get into it.

Trying to get that lawn of ours back to normal is going to be a major undertaking.

Speaking of lawns, Hitchcocks, at 749 Camden Ave., one of the long-time advertisers in The Press, notified us that their current ad should be changed.

The ad specifies that Hitchcock's is the lawnmower service center and "now is the time to sharpen your nower."

They suggested that people weren't thinking about their lawns right now.

We agree that one doesn't mow a lawn in a heavy downpour. (Shucks, we can't play golf even under those conditions.)

However, we have a sneaking hunch that when we are able to get at our own lawn, our mower will really need to be sharpened.

Or maybe we can use a scythe.

LAST WEEK'S COLUMN mentioned that come next April there will be three openings on the Campbell Union (elementary) School District board of trustees that will be "up for grabs."

We were criticized in some quarters for making such a statement.

How do we know, we were asked, if there will be three openings?

For clarification, we submit that the terms of three trustees expire.

In our book, regardless of whether incumbents run again or not, that still means there are "three openings up for grabs."

Does that "grab you" a little?

We hope so.

specifications had been clearly understood and if the low bidder was qualified to do the work.

After Bill Wren, public works director, assured the Council that everything was in order, the contract was awarded to the low bidder. The engineer's estimate for the job was $25-30,000.

By resolution at the last meeting, following a recommendation by the public works director, the City Council filed a request for a $500,000 allocation for the fiscal year of 1974-75 with the California Highway Commission.

The allocation would be under the urban extension of Federal-Aid Secondary Project and would be for the improvement of Campbell Avenue (loop system) between Winchester Blvd. and Highway 17.

If the application is approved, the City of Campbell would be required to acquire sufficient rights-of-way to assure the completion of the project.

MEET TONIGHT

The City Council will hold its next regular meeting on Monday, November 27, but will also meet tonight (Monday) in a study session in the conference room at the City Hall. (The Planning Commission will meet in the council chambers tonight.)

At the study session tonight, the City Council will meet with R. B. Millen, who with his associates is proposing to convert the Sunsweet property into a cultural and commercial center that will be called "The Factory."

Councilmen indicated at their last meeting that there were some aspects of the development that involved the proposed south loop street and the formation of a parking district that needed clarification.

Another matter that will be hashed over by the City Council tonight is the permanent location of Fire Station No. 2.

The city purchased property on West Cambpell Ave. at Dot Ave. for a station but, subsequently, at informal sessions the consensus seemed to indicate that a station should be located nearer the "downtown core" or remain in its present location adjacent to the city hall. But no decision has been made on the matter.

The matter came to a head at a Planning Commission hearing when the public facility element of the general plan was on the agenda and the indefiniteness of the fire station site was emphasized.

In another fire matter, the City Council approved a proposed mutual aid agreement with Central Fire District as submitted by Fire Chief Gene Borden. Chief Borden was directed to submit the proposal to Central Fire District administration and the Board of Commissioners.

At the last meeting also the City Council approved the installation of a burglar alarm system by Mosler Safe Co. in the central communications center at the city hall at no cost to the city.

Charges will be made for the service to the firms using the system on a franchise basis for a total of $5 per month.

Tax status of mobile homes awaits results of lawsuit

Declaring he cannot stand idly by and permit double taxation, State Controller Hugh Flournoy has reported that he will temporarily withhold distribution of State trailer coach license fees to Los Angeles County.

Flournoy noted that a lawsuit is still pending in that county regarding property tax assessments on mobile homes which are also subject to the State trailer coach license fee.

"No mobile home owner should be taxed twice," said Flournoy. "I understand Los Angeles County has assessed many mobile homes for property taxes and that some of these taxes already have been paid.

Therefore, the State license fee distribution will be held up until the assessed mobile homes are specifically identified, and I will then withhold that portion of Los Angeles County's share of the apportionment."

Flournoy said that Los Angeles County is under order from the Superior Court to cease assessing property taxes on mobile homes and refund any payments already made. However, the litigation on which the court order is based is still subject to appeal and final determination.

He said the State Department of Motor Vehicles and Los Angeles County officials are cooperating in an attempt to identify those mobile homes on which county property taxes have been assessed in addition to State license fees.

There is authority in State law for the license fees to be refunded if this becomes necessary.

Mobile homes are covered by the State law which levies trailer coach license fees in lieu of local property taxes. The fees are apportioned semiannually to the counties according to the registered addresses of the trailer coaches.

Los Angeles was scheduled to receive $1,876,259 in the current distribution. The Controller estimated that the county has levied property tax assessments on mobile homes representing about 40 percent of that amount.

Santa Clara County's share was $697,151.51.

County finance director plans to retire next May

To thousands of persons in this County the signature "Edward N. Glaeser" on a piece of paper the size of a check is a welcome sight. After next May 6 it will have to be a different name.

Glaeser is retiring on that date as County director of finance. During almost eight years in that job and as County Controller for another seven and one-half years before that, he probably is the all time "big spender" of County government.

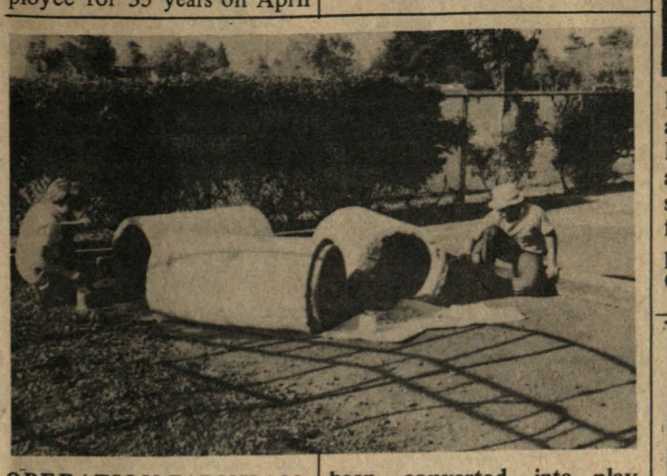
He will have expended almost seven billion dollars in those 15½ years.

His signature, or rather a reproduction of it, will have appeared on over 17 million County warrants. These were paychecks for County employees, welfare checks, paychecks for school teachers and election board members, jurors and payments to individuals and businesses selling goods or services to the County.

Glaeser has informed the Board of Supervisors that he will have been a County employee for 35 years on April 15, 1973, and he plans to retire May 6.

Glaeser became the County's first director of finance in 1965. County Executive Howard Campen created the position at that time by combining the departments of the County Controller, Treasurer and Tax Collector,

He was born in Palo Alto, where he still lives with his wife, and he attended Palo Alto High School, San Jose State and Golden Gate Business Colleges.



OPERATION FARNHAM FACE-LIFT--got under way recently at the Farnham School. Pictured above are parents installing cement pipes in the school's kindergarten yard. The pipes, later painted red, blue and yellow have been converted into play equipment. Other work included was painting all the picnic tables and benches, scrubbing and painting classroom doors and sanding and painting the inner squad benches. The second phase is set to begin in the spring.

PAUL HOFF

Eagle Scout Paul Hoff

At a Court of Honor held by troop 375 of Campbell, Paul D. Hogg, 14, was awarded the rank of Eagle Scout. Paul is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hoff of Campbell.

Paul first entered into the scouting program seven years ago in Cub Pack 317, Campbell. While a cub scout, Paul earned the ranks of Wolf and Bear and six Webelo achievements and the Arrow of Light. In 1968 he entered into troop 339, San Jose and transferred to troop 375 in January 1971.

Paul is the holder of 22 merit badges and is a member of The Order of the Arrow. Paul has been a den chief and has held the offices of assistant patrol leader, patrol leader and assistant senior patrol leader. He is currently assistant senior patrol leader in charge of advancement.

Paul has attended summer camp for three years and this last summer attended the Junior Leaders Instructors Training Camp. He also has the Historic Trails and 50-Mile Backpacking awards. The latter was acquired this last summer when he and his troop hiked over 100 miles in the John Muir Wilderness.

For his Eagle Scout service project, Paul worked with the West Valley Progressive Seniors, collecting hundreds of cans and bottles for their recycling project.

ACTING TOO REAL

Dennis Jones, one of the lead players in Westmont High School's recent production, "West Side Story," played his part for real.

While playing the part of Riff, last Wednesday evening, Dennis was slightly injured in the rumble scene during the first act by a mock hit that connected.

He was taken to a local hospital for examination but returned in time for the final curtain call.

True to the tradition of the theater, the cast continued the performance without the leader of the rival gang. From reports they did a fine job.

CAMBRIAN ARTIST'S MEET

A slide show, narrated by club member Conrad Wiley also highlighted the evening. The films depicted historical points of interest of the Black Hills of South Dakota.

Past Commander Lee Spencer was chairman of this year's event.

CHANGE OF GENDER

The special dummy used to teach sixth grade students mouth-to-mouth resuscitation has changed its gender this year.

According to Helen Leigh, public health nurse, Campbell Union School District, "Ann" was put out to pasture. After giving years of service "she was getting so patched up," Mrs. Leigh said, "she needed a rest."

Her new replacement, "Andy," carries on the fine tradition.

Girl Scouts

COUNCIL MEETING

Delegates to the Santa Clara County Girl Scout fall council meeting held recently, from Neighborhood 15, were presented with copies of the new Girl Scout promise and law.

Attending were Mrs. Richard McCullough, neighborhood chairman; Mrs. James Wagner, Mrs. David Harrison, Mrs. Billy Wingfield and Mrs. Anthony Mendivil.

Cadette Girl Scouts of troop 77 conducted the opening and closing flag ceremonies, while delegates reported on the National Council meeting held recently in Dallas, Texas.

Fred LaCosse, news director for KNTV, Channel 11, moderated a mock TV panel show discussion entitled "New Directions" which dealt with the goals and accomplishments of Girl Scouting and the possible ways to update the program to meet present girl-needs.

Panelists included Betty Fiksdal, council trainer; Brenda Christensen, member of the board of directors; Pat Webb, Neighborhood 31 chairman; Jack Panighetti, Los Gatos postmaster and advisor of Senior Girl Scout troop 88, and JoAnn Tanori, senior scout from troop 891.

Concluding the meeting, recognition was given adult volunteers for their years of service. Those presented with five-year service pins were Mrs. James Root, Mrs. Earl Hansen, Mrs. Ben Sanchez, Mrs. Paul Perry, Mrs. Darrell Slafter, Mrs. A. G. Gunther and DeAnn Williams.

Receiving 10-year pins were Mrs. Billy Wingfield and Mrs. Leon Willette.

INVENTOR—Mel Vincent, a carpenter foreman for the county's General Services Agency (GSA), checks his invention, an acoustical ceiling hole puncher.

County foreman invention used

When Mel Vincent discovered that ceilings in the County Administration Building lost their acoustical qualities after they were repainted, he decided to do something about it.

Vincent, a carpenter foreman in Santa Clara County General Services Agency, (GSA) has invented a machine that perforates the painted tiles in the ceiling with tiny pinholes.

It is these holes that give the rooms their acoustical quality, but once they are repainted it is lost.

Vincent devised a four foot long drum with a 12 inch diameter with 8,000 nails on the end of it. The drum is mounted on a table and suspended on each end.

After the tiles are painted they are removed from the ceiling, placed on a tray and shoved through the roller. Nails on the roller perforate the tile and restore the acoustical quality.

Vincent started looking for a solution to the problem of the paint-clogged holes after talking to his supervisor, Cal Coran, chief of GSA Building Services. Coran told him the repainted ceilings had produced an almost impossible noise factor in County offices.

Vincent, who has been a carpenter foreman for six years, has worked with General Services since 1954.

Greek folk music performed

Greek music, dance and song were featured at Greek Night in the Carriage House at Villa Montalvo, Saratoga, on Sunday, November 19.

The Aitos Greek dancers, directed by Nikie Saffas and Ted Sofios, steep themselves in the lore of the highly varied regions of Greece from the earliest recorded history to the present time.

Also appearing was Meraklithes, a four-man Greek music group. Group spokesman, John Reckas, comments that they play Greek folk music, both traditional and modern, because they enjoy it. All four have other jobs, but play as a hobby.

ALCOHOLISM CENTERS

Santa Clara County's six alcoholism centers are making a thrust to bring the message of alcohol abuse to the community, according to the County Health Department.

Teams from the clinics are working on an intimate level with the county's halfway house programs for alcoholics, offering group therapy sessions and counseling, says Jerome Becker, coordinator of the county's alcoholism program.

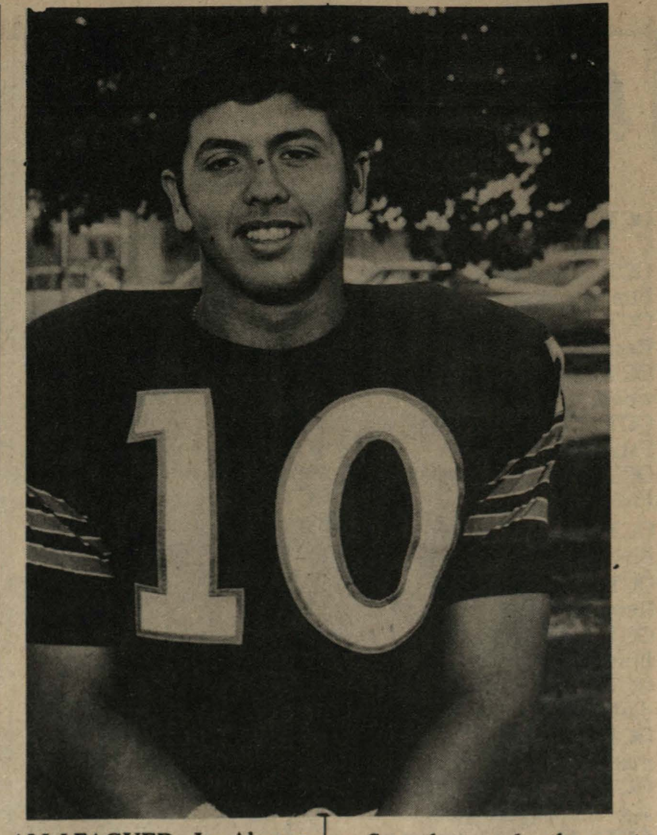
Teams began working at the Valley Medical Center's detoxification ward last September 1.

The clinics are staffed with doctors, vocational counselors, a public health nurse, social workers and community service workers.

HERNIA CANDIDATE

A 300 pound safe, containing over $3,000 in cash and coin was removed from The Bodega restaurant last week.

According to G. R. Fellersen, assistant manager, the safe contained weekend receipts. Entry was believed made through a rear door and the safe removed by way of a rear loading dock.



ALL-LEAGUER—Joe Alvarez, former Campbell High grid star now at West Valley College, was named by the coaches as quarterback on the all-conference team of Camino Norte. He led the league in passing while leading the Vikings to the league title.

There were 10 Vikings named to the all-conference roster, including Mike Franz, formerly of Leigh, who was also named offensive back of the year.

Other Vikings making the top list included, Sam LoBue (Campbell) named first string end for the second year and Dave Fuller (Branham) as guard.

Second team berths went to Gary Harris (Camden) at end; Gary Mrdutt (Leigh) at center; and Dennis Fink (Del Mar) tackle.

Defensively two Vikings, Ken Padia (Leigh) and Doug Gerdwagon (Leigh) were named on the first team and Mike Oliver (Leigh) to the second team.

Nine WVC gridders made honorable mention: Doug Allen (Los Gatos); Mike Jones (Westmont); Mitch Pieracci (Branham); Mike Montesano (Leigh); Steve Cobler (Leigh); Vic Bennett (Buchser); Charlie Prior (Washington); Bruce Batinich (Blackford) and Brad Syth (Santa Clara).

Camden junior makes recovery

Dave Driskell, Camden High School junior, is making a good recovery after suffering serious injuries during a football game against Westmont High earlier this month.

Driskell, a defensive tackle on the varsity squad, suffered a broken leg and dislocated ankle during the game, according to Bill Holland, head coach at Camden High. The young man was taken to Good Samaritan Hospital following the injury and later released.

Last year Driskell received honorable mention on the All-League varsity team.

Spirit groups fare well in competition

by Mark Brusaschetti

In this world of sports and competitions its always great to be victorious for the home crowd. Campbell High School's Spirit Girls were able to do just that as they pleased the partisan audience with an outstanding performance at the Spirit Tournament, held November 11, in the Campbell Gym.

Thirty schools, including more than 600 participants, from Gilroy to Fremont gathered here at Campbell for the spirited competitions held from 7:45 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

There were six areas of competition and Campbell High placed well in all of them.

Trophies were awarded to the top three teams in each division. Campbell came out of the competitions with five trophies of the six categories.

The Varsity Cheerleaders, competing in a field of 20 teams, finished a very respectable fourth and just missed gathering a third place trophy.

In the Song Girl competitions Campbell took a third place out of 17 schools.

Campbell's Lettergirl unit and Frosh-Soph Cheerleading squad both took second places with impressive routines. The Lettergirls competed against 17 teams, while the F/S Cheerleaders yelled against 12 groups.

And highlighting Campbell's impressive production were outstanding performances by the Pirettes, the Buccaneer drill team and the Flag Girls, another precision routine group. Both units far outdistanced their competitors for first place trophies. Poised and pretty, the Pirettes placed tops among nine talented teams. The Flags garnered their trophy by finishing first out of 20 teams.

The entire competition was impressive and well organized. Credit must be given to Mike Powers, Liz Doss and the Campbell faculty.

Powers, an ex-student at Campbell, organized and performed the duties of Master of Ceremonies at the Tourney. Liz Doss, an ex-cheerleader with much experience in competitions, is the Campbell Spirit Commissioner and did much to contribute to the success of the Tournament.

By Lynne Hermle

As everyone knows, this is that one special week of the year when the Campbell High Buccaneers meet the Los Gatos Wildcats in determined combat. It should be a close game this year, since Campbell and Los Gatos standings are 1-5-1 and 2-5 respectively at this point. But there is no doubt in my mind as to whom the winner will be, and Campbell's football players have no doubt either as is evident from their comments on the game:

Jim Oswald, quarterback: "The teams are pretty well matched but I know we'll win an important game like this."

Mike Fisk, reserve defensive back: "We'll whomp Los Gatos."

Lonnie Crider, linebacker: "No matter who's bad or who's good when Campbell and Los Gatos get together it is always a good game."

Mike Barbieri, defensive tackle: "The team that hits the hardest will win."

Mark Sylvia, defensive tackle: "I feel that we have the superior team and come Thanksgiving we will prove it."

Tom Guardino, offensive guard: "We'll win it."

Rick Nielson, center: "The teams are pretty well matched but I think we'll put it together and win."

Rich Cannady, split end: "I think we're saving it all for the Los Gatos game and we'll win."

Henry Egurrola, offensive guard: "I feel that we shall beat them because we are a better team than our record shows -- and we have better personnel."

Coach Matthews, Head Football Coach: "Either team can win. Los Gatos is an aggressive team, a really physical team with good personnel but they're not a high scoring team. The team that outhits should win, but I feel that we should already have about six wins. We've had some bad luck this season but I think we'll win on Turkey Day."

So there you have it. Come out on Turkey Day and see the Big Beautiful Buccaneers whomp the whimpering Wildcats on Thanksgiving morning at Campbell.

RAH! RAH! RAH!

Three cheers and a HOOray for Campbell's spirit girls for clearly sweeping the spirit competition held at Campbell on November 11. Every group from Campbell that entered -- Lettergirls, Song girls, Pirettes, Cheerleaders (both Varsity and Frosh-soph) and Flag girls placed in the finals, which are the top six schools entered in each division.

Although over 20 schools took part, Campbell received five trophies. Both the Flag girls and the Pirettes took firsts, the Frosh-soph cheerleaders and the Lettergirls took second, the Song girls took a third and the Varsity cheerleaders just missed third in their division by two-tenths of a point -- clearly showing Campbell's spirit superiority.

I feel that it should be stated that not one teacher or administrator from Campbell took part in the judging, and there were many judges from other schools. RAH!

HAPPY HOMECOMING

"Raw Livin" was the group that played at Campbell's annual Homecoming Dance on November 17. Earlier in the week a Freshman, Sophomore and Junior Princess were selected along with five senior candidates for Queen.

Carol Norwicki was chosen as princess for the sophomores; freshmen elected Cathy Wishman and the juniors picked Becky Alvarez.

Fourth runner-up for Homecoming Queen was Melinda Wilcox, third runner-up was Regina Lin, the second runner-up was Leah Rawlinson, the first runner-up was Clare Tuttle, and the Homecoming Queen for 1972 is Becky Hermann.

The Queen and her court can be seen at the Thanksgiving day game with Los Gatos.

ON THE SLOPES

The Campbell High Ski Club will be hitting the slopes on December 9 at Bear Valley. This is their first trip and will be an all-day one. The advisors for this year are Dennis Lynch and Donna Schuster and the officers are Don Jeffers, president; Cecil Baumgartner, vice-president; Cindy Billmeyer, secretary, and Bruce Bartell, treasurer. The cost of the bus for the first trip will be $7.75, and sign-ups are still being taken in Room 23. Think snow!

P.S. Thank you, Maureen and Paul, for those kind words of welcome!

Parcel No. 2846-23 EX

RESOLUTION OF INTENTION OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF COUNTY OF SANTA CLARA TO SELL REAL PROPERTY NO LONGER REQUIRED FOR HIGHWAY PURPOSES

WHEREAS, the County of Santa Clara has acquired for highway purposes certain real property no longer required for such purposes, such property being more fully described in Exhibit "A", attached hereto and made a part hereof by this reference;

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved that pursuant to the authority of Section 960.4 of the California Streets and Highways Code, the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara do hereby declare their intention to offer for sale the above-described real property.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that such real property shall be sold subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. The minimum amount which will be accepted for the sale of such property shall be the sum of Thirty Thousand and no/100 Dollars ($30,000.00).

2. The County of Santa Clara has purchased a preliminary title report from Valley Title, 300 South First Street, San Jose, escrow number 156921. A copy of such preliminary title report is available for inspection at the title company. The successful bidder shall close the transaction through this escrow.

3. All sealed bids shall be accompanied by a deposit in the form of cash, cashier's check or certified check, payable to the order of the County of Santa Clara in the amount of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00). All oral bids from persons not submitting written bids shall be accompanied by a deposit in the form of cash, cashier's check or certified check in the amount of ten per cent (10%) of the minimum price specified in this resolution. No bids shall be considered unless such deposit is enclosed or provided therewith.

4. Written bids shall be on forms provided by the County. Before accepting any written bid, the Board of Supervisors shall call for oral bids. Any oral bid must exceed by at least five per cent the highest written bid. In the absence of written bids, the minimum oral bid shall be not less than the amount specified in paragraph 1. Final acceptance of an oral bid shall not be made, however, unless such oral bid is reduced to writing and signed by the bidder on a form provided by the County.

No commission shall be paid unless there is contained in the sealed proposal the name of the licensed real estate broker to whom it shall be paid. No commission shall be paid in connection with a successful oral bid unless the oral bid, when reduced in writing, states the name of the licensed real estate broker to whom it shall be paid.

5. The County may accept the bid of the highest responsible bidder (written or oral), or may reject all bids, as well as waiving any and all defects or informalities in any and all such bids. In the event there is a tie as to the highest responsible bidder (written or oral), the successful bidder may be determined by lot, or by such other means as determined by the Board of Supervisors. Any sale may be cancelled by County at any time prior to the recordation of the deed, in which event all monies deposited shall be refunded without payment of interest. In determining the highest proposal, the Board shall not subtract therefrom any commission to be paid in accordance with paragraph 12 hereof.

6. Within sixty (60) days after date of acceptance of bid by the Board of Supervisors, the successful bidder shall:

(a) Pay the balance in full, or
(b) Increase his deposit to not less than twenty-five per cent (25%) of the amount of the bid by deposit with the title company referred to in paragraph 2.

The balance of the purchase price (in a maximum sum of seventy-five per cent of the amount of the bid) shall be evidenced by a promissory note by the successful bidder naming the County of Santa Clara as payee, such evidence of indebtedness to be secured by a first deed of trust covering the entire parcel being sold. Such note shall be payable on or before eighteen (18) months after date of recordation of deed. The deed of trust shall contain a clause providing for acceleration upon the alienation of title.

Upon delivery into escrow by bidder of all documents and money provided for in (a) or (b) above, County shall deliver into escrow a deed in favor of the successful bidder.

7. The promissory note shall bear interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum. Said interest shall be paid to County quarterly on the first day of January, April, July and October, commencing with whichever of the last-mentioned months that follows the recordation date of the deed. Each quarterly interest payment shall be computed and prorated on the basis of the unpaid balance prevailing at the beginning of the quarterly period.

A late charge in the amount of 2% of the quarterly interest payment will be assessed if interest payment is not made within 10 calendar days after due date.

The principal obligation under the Note and Deed of Trust may be prepaid in full or in part at any time without penalty. Partial payments shall be applied against the principal obligation.

8. Until the recordation of the deed to the successful bidder, the successful bidder acquires no right, title or interest or equity in or to such real property.

9. A failure of the successful bidder to comply with any of the provisions of this resolution shall cause the County to terminate the sales proceeding and retain the deposit referred to in paragraph 3.

10. The sale shall be without warranty, express or implied, and shall be subject to all liens, easements and encumbrances, whether of record or not, as of the date of recordation of the deed. The County of Santa Clara does not guarantee the condition of the property, nor does it assume any responsibility for its conformance to codes or regulations of the State of California, or the city or county in which the property is located. It is the successful bidder's responsibility to determine all applicable building, planning and zoning regulations relative to the property. The property will be sold on an "as is" basis.

11. Any and all expenses incurred in the transfer of title to such property to the successful bidder, including title insurance, escrow charges and documentary stamp tax, shall be paid by the successful bidder, with the exception that the County of Santa Clara will pay for the preliminary title report previously referred to.

The successful bidder shall deposit into escrow a policy of fire insurance covering any improvements located on the property in an amount satisfactory to and naming the County of Santa Clara as coinsured.

12. In the event a commission is to be paid in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 4 above, County shall pay a licensed real estate broker commission in the maximum of six per cent of the purchase price, such commission, however, to be paid only in the event that the Board of Supervisors accepts a bid, only out of monies received by the County of Santa Clara for the sale of property, and only after recordation of the deed. Such commission shall be paid as follows:

(a) If the highest acceptable sealed bid is submitted by a licensed real estate broker, a commission of three per cent of the purchase price. In the event of a tie between two or more licensed real estate brokers as to the highest acceptable sealed bid, the commission of three per cent of the purchase price shall be equally divided between the brokers. No commission shall be paid if the highest acceptable sealed bid is not submitted by a licensed real estate broker. In the event of a tie between a licensed real estate broker and a bidder who submits a bid and is not a licensed real estate broker, as to the highest acceptable sealed bid, the licensed real estate broker shall be entitled to a commission of three per cent of the purchase price.

(b) Three per cent of the purchase price to the licensed real estate broker submitting the successful bid.

County gives new child care help

Santa Clara County is announcing a new program to help mothers on welfare obtain reliable child care services so that they can enroll in job training programs and accept jobs.

The program will hire some of the mothers who receive AFDC funds, or "aid to families with dependent children," to care for the children of other AFDCmothers.

The details of the program were spelled out by Ernest Hirose, assistant director for services in the County Department of Social Services.

He explained that the state has made available to the county $117,754 under terms of the Welfare Reform Act, and the county is investing another $56,696. This is matched by $523,350 in Federal funds for a total program of $697,800.

"In order for AFDC mothers to seek employment or training, it is necessary to have someone reliable and competent to care for their children during the day," Hirose said. "We will be paying other AFDC mothers to do this."

"In our society today we don't give ample recognition to women who are good homemakers," he commented.

The service will be offered in the neighborhood where the child's mother lives.

Hirose noted that $25 per child, per week will be paid to family day care mothers and a limited amount of child care for large families will be provided by in-home child care attendants.

Beth Morgan is society guest

Mrs. Morgan is also known for her outstanding work in garden clubs and for the past five years was General Chairman of the Amateur Division, San Mateo County Fiesta.

The meeting is open to the public. Guests are welcome.

Job training offered

The Vocational Services Division of the County Department of Social Services reports that it gave 2,466 welfare recipients job training in the past year and 56 per cent or 1,394 were hired. This resulted in annual savings of $1,400,000 for county taxpayers.

Mike Maran said that the division's training and vocational services efforts saved taxpayers $120,520.75 of that amount during June.

Vocational Services, located at 55 W. Younger Ave., has been training and counseling public assistance recipients for 16 years.

According to Maran, Vocational Services involves job counseling, formal group instruction and on-the-job training and placement.

The division maintains close ties with other agencies that provide job opportunities, such as the California Department of Human Resources Development. VSD is the liaison for the County Social Services Department with the State of California pertaining to the Work Incentive (WIN) Program.

VSD also supervises the Neighborhood Youth Corps. unit, a training program for out-of-school unemployed teenagers and establishes cooperation with area industry and business. This includes public and private agencies which may offer job possibilities and training for welfare clients.

Maran cited a typical case where a 46-year-old man was employed doing manual labor. Due to a back injury he was unable to work and was forced to accept aid for totally disabled persons.

The man then entered vocational training and upon completion was placed on a clerical job within the county offices and was able to support himself and family without any public aid.

"We also train the individual according to the trends in the labor market and we tailor the program to fit the needs of the individual," said Elliott.

He explained, "We are linked with every manpower agency in the community and we are able to give adult training courses and a high school diploma."

Elliott also indicated that VSD has worked with people who came from jail sentences and no longer had or could find jobs. Many times VSD has trained such an individual and placed him on a job.

Local couple take interest

A local couple are among those taking an active interest in the international child welfare organization (Save The Children Federation).

Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Bradley, 375 Sunberry Drive, recently returned from a visit to the Nazlini Boarding School in Arizona, where they met the little Navajo boy they are sponsoring through the self-help program.

The face-to-face meeting made a reality of the long distance friendship that started nearly a year ago. The Bradleys learned at firsthand how their little protegee lives.

John is six years old, and has eight brothers and sisters. Because employment opportunities are so scarce on the Navajo reservation, his father has not been able to find work. Virtually the only family income comes from the making of traditional crafts in the home.

Save the Children Federation is celebrating its 40th anniversary this year. It was founded in 1932, originally to help the underprivileged children of Appalachia. The American Indian program was instituted after the devastating Southwest blizzard of 1948. Programs are also in effect in 14 countries overseas.

Because English is not spoken in the home, John has had some language difficulty at school, but is reported doing well in first grade. The personal contact with friends in the outside world is especially important, as it gives John the opportunity to communicate with others outside his own community and culture.

Sponsorship funds are used to help buy shoes and clothing and pay necessary school expenses.

The sponsor receives a photograph and case history of the child, and an annual report. When John is older and has learned to write, correspondence will be encouraged as a means of closing the distance between sponsor and child.

The Federation is registered with the U. S. State Department Advisory Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid, is a member of the International Union for Child Welfare and the American Council of Voluntary Agencies. Any individual, school or group interested in helping a child should contact Save the Children Federation, Norwalk Connecticut 06852.

Former school head speaks

Former Campbell School Superintendent Larry Hill will be among those participating in the December 4, Estate Planning Workshop at the San Jose Main Library, West San Carlos and Almaden Avenue.

Sponsored by the Santa Clara County Division of the California Retired Teachers Association, such topics as tax planning, estate transfer and types of wills are scheduled for the workshop.

Hill, formerly head of the Campbell High School District, now serves as president of the Santa Clara Division of CRTA.

Agent status to localite

Pat Safford, 1182 Steinway Ave., and an associate of the Campbell Press, has been admitted to regular professional membership in the association of Enrolled Agents, according to Leonard Williams of Sunnyvale, vice-president.

In order to qualify for membership in the exclusive organization, Ms Safford obtained enrollment to practice before the Internal Revenue Service through demonstrating technical competence in tax matters by way of a comprehensive written examination administered by the IRS.

In addition to income taxes, enrolled agents are also allowed to represent clients before the IRS in such matters as estate, gift, excise and interest equalization taxes as well as the recently enacted wage and price regulations.

Active in local youth and school volunteer work, she resides locally with her husband and four children. She is also the author of several articles on taxation, some of which may appear in future issues of the Campbell Press.

Along with other members of the Association, Ms Safford is currently working on a tax refresher course to be presented at the Sunnyvale Holiday Inn, November 24 and 25. The seminar is open to all tax practitioners and more information can be obtained by contacting Ms Safford at 374-3574.

CAMDEN COUGARS LINE-UP--The annual Homecoming Game will be held on the Camden field on Thursday, November 23, at 11 a.m. The frosh/soph game will be held earlier beginning at 9 a.m. Admission is $2 for adults and $1 for children, under 12. Camden and Del Mar student body card holders will be admitted free.

HOMECOMING QUEEN

Well, it's November and that means it's time for Thanksgiving and all that goes with it. Part of that "all that goes with it" is the football Homecoming Game against Del Mar and the choosing of a Queen to reign over the game.

In the past there was a great deal of dispute over how the queen was chosen. Last year a system was devised that proved favorable to all so it was used again this year. The students choose all the semi-finalists. Then the football team chooses four finalists. The students are then asked to pick the winner, the other three becoming the Queen's Court.

This year's four finalists are, Varsity Cheerleaders Nancy Yorkey and Kathy Adams. Seniors Val Harland and Denise Montgomery complete the field. The winner was picked two weeks ago in an election but Queen won't be announced until November 22.

MAJOR ACTIVITIES

There are two major activities coming up. The fall sports banquet will be held for those in fall sports on November 30. This annual activity is very popular and should be a great success.

The second activity on the way is the Christmas Dance on December 8. This, too, is an annual occurrence and also very popular.

AUTHOR, SPEAKER IN TALK

Ex-drug user Brian Ruudl came to Camden on Wednesday, November 15, to talk to the students about what he knows best; drugs and people. Ruud has recently written a book. "The Trip Beyond" is the title and as the title implies, it's about drugs.

HOMECOMING GAME

Camden's varsity football team will be bringing its shaky '72 season to an end Thursday, Nov. 23, on the Cougar field. They will meet arch rival Del Mar in the annual Homecoming Game.

Although the Cougars have had some trouble this season getting it together, the Del Mar team is going to have more than they can handle with the Cougars and the poor Dons are going to return home with defeat at their heels.

PLANNING AHEAD?

No one is thinking about summer's heat this fall...with one exception.

An unknown thief made off with an air compressor unit used in an apartment air conditioning system. Value was set at $300.

The unit was stolen from one of the McKeon Construction company apartment buildings under construction.

AGA SWIMMING

Congratulations AGA varsity swim Team! The team recently won first place at a meet at Camden. This four woman team consists of Bibbi Smedh and Eva Wilkner (Swedish exchange students) and freshmen Anne Bruening and Cindy Rutkowitz. Both Bibbi and Eva beat Claudia Clevenger from Blackford to take first place. Bibbi set a new National record for high schools and colleges in the 100 breast stroke. The team averaged first place throughout the year.

ON THE WAY

The teachers at Del Mar will be leaving at the end of the semester. Both Mrs. Haney and Mrs. Bronson are expecting babies in the spring. Congratulations!

PEP CLUB NEWS

After many weeks of planning, the Big "D" was finally tried. The Big "D" is a bunch of girls in Pep Club who wear gold to a football game and sit in a Big "D". The girls can make up a meeting by doing this besides promoting more spirit.

The Big "D" was tried out at the Saratoga night game on November 10, but it didn't work out. Half of the girls never showed up and the gold couldn't be seen because of coats and umbrellas covering it up. Anyway, we are gonna try it again--would you believe for our Turkey Game on Thanksgiving? (Cross your fingers for no rain!)

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Happy Birthday in the near future to Joani Norment on November 22, Jeannie McGuckin on December 3 and Carol Ichikawa on December 7.

HOMECOMING QUEEN

Eleven girls have been nominated for Homecoming by various clubs at Del Mar. The girls are seniors: Karen Bondelie, Wendy Carter, Debi Hein, Linda Hoque, Julie La Mar, Sharon Newburn, Lucinda Ortega, Alison Roberts, and Debbie Toro. Juniors nominated are Lisa Bonsall and Desiree Geyette.

Good Luck!

1950'S DAY

A 1950's day will be held on November 22, the day of the 1950's dance Cathy told you about last week. Everybody should wear clothes from the 50's to school and have a really fun day. (Lots of freshmen don't want to do it because it's not sophisticated!) Let's show these frosh that we CAN have fun!

TURKEY GAME

The greatest game of the year is coming up! It is the annual Turkey Day game between Del Mar and Camden. This year's game will be played at Camden. The frosh-soph game will be at 11 a.m. and the varsity at 1 p.m. There will be a great half-time show with the crowning of both Homecoming Queens. The game is usually very exciting and there is standing room only because students, parents, teachers and alumni go.

I would like to pay honor to both of our Del Mar teams. There are far too many names to mention but each and every one of the players is great! WE LOVE OUR TEAMS and we know they will win our Homecoming games!!!

COME ON GUYS,
CRANBERRY CAMDEN!!!

PLAY CHANGE

The Del Mar play, "Up the Down Staircase," will be November 30, December 1 and 2 instead of November 16, 17 and 18.

P.S. Happy Thanksgiving!

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

The sign on South Winchester stating, "This town is a bird sanctuary," has been sporting a slight modification lately.

Over the bird section of the sign someone has plastered, "Nixon."

The only question; Which side was he on?

DARTING AROUND

with Tom Carroll

Thanksgiving is a time for reflection and I'm sure that all of us have something to give thanks for. I personally have many. It is also the time that the Campbell Press prints the annual football issue. So, what does that leave for a sports column.

Tony Dirksen, who worked on the editorial desk of The Press during the summer and is now attending classes at UCLA, sent us a clipping from the Los Angeles Times about our favorite sport, Darts.

The story by Dwight Chapin, is about Jack Carr. Jack is one of three American darters who will be going to England to shoot for the Pimm's Cup. The other two are former North American Open Champion Bob Thiede and Jacque Eagan.

It also tells about the Southern California Darts Assn. and how it has grown from 50 members to 1500. Our NCDA has also grown and is now about two-thirds the size of the SCDA.

CALIFORNIA FAIRS

I also received a memo from Bill Clayton, general manager of Western Fairs Association, that more than 4000 organizations used California Fairgrounds during the last year. This includes the Boy Scouts as well as some of Sally Howe's dog training classes.

Bill said that more than 13 million people used fairgrounds, buildings and facilities other than at fairtime. When you add the attendance at fairs this brings the total number of people to use the facilities to about 24 million.

This information is the result of a questionnaire sent to fairs in 29 states and five Canadian Provinces. The average was 52.7 organizations with one fair reporting a high of 357 groups. The high attendance figure reported by a single fair was 1,057,038.

After a look at these figures and the amount of usage that fairgrounds have each year, outside of fairtime, our governor still vetoed an increase in the appropriation for capital improvements to fairgrounds.

CHRISTMAS FAIR

The atmosphere of a Yuletide London street fair in the era of Charles Dickens holds forth this weekend and every weekend through Christmas at "Fezziwig's Warehouse," next to the San Francisco Produce Market.

The Fair features continuous old-fashioned gaslight entertainments of the music halls, pennygaff shows, musicians, dancers, a Christmas Pageant thrice daily and many enchanting characters from the journals of Charles Dickens and other contemporary works of mid-Victorian times.

Amid a setting of winding London streets and alleys lined with shops, stalls, stages and "pubs" some 100 craftsmen form a Christmas bazaar, offering handmade holiday gifts and decorations. Traditional old English Yuletide foods and beverages can also be found.

To get to "Fezziwig's Warehouse" you drive up Bayshore Freeway from here to the Army Street off ramp and follow the signs. Let's start the Yuletide season off with lots of fun.

PAUL & MS. MAUREEN

(Macierz) (Hillyard)

Paul: "Ohmygod! Maureen -- Thursday's Homecoming! And the last game of our entire high school career!"

Ms.: "Paul, quit banging your head against the wall! We can come back next year."

Paul: "We'll never be able to hear the band again! Or the roar of the crowd..."

SPEECH AND DEBATE

Saturday, November 11, the Westmont Speech and Debate team brought home three trophies and two medals.

Working from 7 a.m. till 6:30 p.m. the team won with Steve Guitterez winning a first place trophy in a dramatic interpretation on Spoon River Anthology.

Cindy Martin got a third place trophy in Programmed Reading.

Sandy Martin won a fifth place medal for extemporaneous; and Brian McCaffrey also took a third place in impromptu.

The third trophy was the Sweepstakes trophy carried home by advisor Shirley Williard.

The next great debate is set for December 9 at Campbell High.

Ms.: "Well, the male chauvanists have done it again."

HOMECOMING QUEEN CANDIDATES

Westmont's Homecoming Queen candidates have been announced. They are Jane Yegge, Jill McCallister, Sheila Blank, Debbie Homan, Sherrie Stouffer and Linda Lucas.

Three of these senior beauties will be voted in as 1972 Homecoming Queen and her two princesses. The Queen will be announced at the Homecoming Dance Wednesday.

Ms.: "What are you doing now?"

Paul: "Practicing for spirit competition."

Ms.: "But that was two weeks ago."

Paul: "It was?"

SECOND PLACE

On Saturday, November 11, Westmont spirit commission, drill team, and flag girls participated in the statewide competition hosted by Campbell High.

The Flag Girls and Satin Dolls both placed second.

Paul: "Did you hear about..."

UPCOMING EVENTS, NEWS AND GOSSIP

INVITATION. Westmont alumnae--come and see your alma mater grind the Longhorns into hamburger.

Have a happy turkey day.
Who is Mr. Irresistible?

Congratulations to Joann Hamm and the entire cast and crew of West Side Story for a great play.

Paul: "Remember we're the Warriors and we're really mean and nobody messes with the warrior machine - no - no - no - nobody!"

FIGHTING WARRIORS

Westmont's Varsity gridmen now have five victories to their name (looking for a sixth at press time) and are preparing for the ninth annual Homecoming Game against the Leigh Longhorns.

The Varsity and F/S squad are formidable foes this year, and will butcher the Longhorns.

The Homecoming game will be Thanksgiving day on the Longhorn's field. Frosh/Soph at 9 a.m. and Varsity at 11 a.m.

Good Luck Warriors.

Paul: "What did you think of West Side Story?"

Ms.: "The play was good, but the audience was bad."

GETTING HASSLED
(editorial)

On the night of Wednesday, November 15, we attended a special student showing of West Side Story. This performance was for Westmont students with a special low price, an early time, and no adults.

The Westmont student has shown again his immaturity. We admit it wasn't the whole audience, but the silent majority crudely got a voice. It does not seem that high school students can become worse than children and be so obnoxious.

Cat calls, whistles, immature giggling and disgusting noises do not belong in a play-going audience. At many times the actors could barely be heard over the constant chatter and uncalled for movement.

The next time the drama department plans a "kiddie show" perhaps they should supply popcorn, balloons and funny hats to keep Westmont's "children" occupied.

We are embarrassed for these "children" and offer our apologies to Ms. Joann Hamm, director; Gary McBee, music director; and the entire cast and crew, who put forth a valiant effort and ignored the obvious immaturity of their audience.

Maybe someday students will grow up.

Paul: "Well, from children to adults."

EGO CORNER

Ego Corner is dropped on the senior class of Westmont High School, the Class of '73.

From our humble beginnings as freshmen to this -- the awesome senior year -- we've given Westmont something to remember.

And Westmont gave us something to remember, too... SENIOR POWER!

Paul: "Next Thanksgiving we'll be alumnae."

Ms.: "Next September we'll be freshmen again."

Eastfield elects new directors

Eastfield Children's Center for emotionally disturbed youngsters recently welcomed three new members of the board of directors who were elected to fill unexpired terms.

They are Mrs. Francis Conrad of Campbell, Mrs. Kenneth Iwagaki of Monte Sereno, and Mrs. W. H. Ziemke of San Jose.

As board members, they will help set policy for the center, located at 251 Llewellyn, Campbell. It is a United Fund Agency that was founded in the 1800's as the Home of Benevolence of San Jose, an orphanage. As needs changed, it was changed to its present form for intensive treatment for troubled children.

Youngsters may be referred to Eastfield for five different types of treatment – residential, group home, foster home, day and out-patient. Eastfield professional staff also works with other members of the families as part of the over-all program.

Other Campbell residents who serve on the board, in addition to Mrs. Conrad, are Mrs. Ronald Rimkus, Dr. Michel Stein, and Mrs. Stephen Goodman. Mrs. Rimkus is president of the board.

County seeks absent parents

Over $1 million in welfare funds may be recovered next year by the County Department of Social Services from the absent and "runaway" parents of children who are receiving public aid.

The department's Child Support Unit collected $455,000 last year from parents who have deserted their children, reported Glenn W. Norris, supervising welfare investigator for the unit.

Recently the County Board of Supervisors "beefed up" the unit's staff with additional workers in hopes of finding many more missing parents. The added staff also will keep a check on cases that the unit handled previously.

Norris said the Child Support Unit began two years ago with five investigators, and one social worker, as part of Recovery and Legal Services, a division of Social Services. Now the staff includes 10 investigators, five interviewers, and six social workers.

"There are two main functions of child support," Norris indicated. "One is to get financial support from absent parents, and the second is to establish paternity where children are born out of wedlock."

Norris pointed out that for the 1970-71 fiscal year 3,928 applicants were interviewed, involving 4,590 absent parents. This is because one interview may lead to more than one missing parent. Out of these 1,818 absent parents were located and contacted. From this 682 agreements to support were made, and 216 cases were referred to the District Attorney for legal action to establish paternity.
